

We are surrounded by such beauty and joy of autumn. There are so many reasons to give thanks to the Lord! His many blessings and generous harvest! Let us take time, not only this weekend, but every day, to be grateful for our many blessings. Among them is the gift of love and respect of our sisters in the Catholic Women's League of Canada as we continue to journey together doing what we can, when we can for those less fortunate. We have helped each other so many times to make our lives better. We need and want to be there for one another. Wonderful sisters in the League who come into our lives to spread God's love and message. Thank you for your support, patience, understanding, commitment and hard work. May the gift of peace, love and happiness be yours in abundance, not only at this time of year, but throughout the coming year.

*God bless
